been received 1,100 shad and 20,000 herrings. Shad sold at from $17 to $18 per hundred, and herrings at $10 per thousand. All of the shores on the river except two, have cut out and the fishery of 1876 may be regarded as at an end. The houses at Fishtown will probably all be closed during the coming week. The telegraph office was the first to close, having removed bag and baggage this morning. The only fish received hereafter will be those from the small nets fished in the creeks and runs, as the two seines still in the river will probably cut out to morrow or Monday.

SENT TO THE ALMS HOUSE. - Dr. E. A. Stabler was called upon this morning to treat the case of a white man who was lying in the house, in what was formerly Peyton's Grove, at the upper end of King street. The feet and legs of the man were so much swollen that he could not walk, and on the recommendation of the doctor, Mayor Kemper sent him to the Alms House for treatment. The wan says that he walked from Richmond to this city, and gives his name as Robert Green-

Dr. Walker. formerly Professor of Ecclesiastical History, has been appointed Professor of Systematic Divinity in the same Institution.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT. - While Messrs. Geo. W. Petty and Wm. A. Bagley were playfully contending for the possession of a gun, at Fishtown, last evening, the piece was accidentally discharged, and the wad striking Mr. Bagley on the leg, inflicted a painful, though not serious wound. Fortunately there were no shot in the gun, or the consequences might have been more serious.

FIRE. - The alarm of fire about ten o'clock, last night, was caused by the bursting of an oil lamp in the residence of Mr. F. M. Weadon, on St. Asaph street near Cameron. The entire fire department was out, and awing to the uncertainty about the cause of the alarm the engines and carriages were driven through several of the streets looking for it. Their services were not needed however.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 20, 1876.—The Senate, after some unimportant morning business, resumed its conference on the impeachment question, and closed its doors.

In the House of Representatives, to-day, the committees were called for reports of a private character, under which a large number of bills were presented and referred to the Committee of the Whole on the Private Calendar.

Among these bills was one for the relief of W. H. Newman and Vanhoffman, for use and occupation of the Pioneer Mills at Alexandria this morning, but recovered in a short time, by Federal troops. Also, a bill for the relief of Mrs. Amelia Richards, widow of Felix Richards, of Fairfax county, Va.

The Speaker announced the special committee on the clerk. The resignation of W. H. Barnum, of Connecticut, elected a Senator, was received. The House, after referring a large number of bills, resolved itself into Committee of the Whole and took up the Naval Appropriation

MISCELLANEOUS. Major B. B. Douglas, of Virginia, has gone home for a few days.

No report on Fitzhugh yet.

No further gas explosions in the Capitol, outside of the two houses of Congress, to-day. The Clerk of the House is to be investigated pext.

General Hunton, of Virginia, attends the sessions of Congress during the day, and goes to church in Alexandria at night. He is improving, and it is hoped preparing for a seat in a higher house-which will be good news to aspirants.

Gov. Wa'ker, it is expected, will soon be heard in the House.

General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

BALTIMORE, May 20. - In the M. E. Church General Conference to-day the Centennial services to-morrow were announced. Bishop Ames will preside, and addresses will be delivered by Bishop Simpson, Rev. James Brown and R. Stockett Matthew. C. L. Robinson, of Florida, presented the following: While it is not the policy, or purpose of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in any manner to connect the church with the State or bring politics into our religion; yet in view of the impiety, unfaithfulness and corruption that has come in many instances to prevail in places of public trust; and in view of the fact that the Christian graces have had so little prominence as qualification for official positions, and being profoundly impressed that all the blessings of civil liberty, which we so abundantly enjoy are due directly to the enlightening influence of the Christian religion, therefore

Resolved, That we, the delegates to the General Conference of the M. E. Church, in Conference assembled, at this the dawn of the new century of our freedom, do most carnestly recommend to the members of our church throughout the country, that they endeaver by every just and proper means to place in all the civil offices of our Government only such men as are known to possess and maintain a true Chris FISH REPORT. - Since yesterday there have | tian character and principles.

Cowing, of Allegany county, Pa., his wife and six children, went up on the Midland train yesterday to take possession of TWO PERFORMANCES, Afternoon at 3, their farm near Bealeton, lately purchased through Messrs. Green & Wise, of this city. It was reported on the streets to-day that Mr. M. B. Harlow, whose name is on the Independent ticket for City Treasurer, intended to withdraw from the contest and support the regular Conservative ticket. The steam yacht Lookout, which has been bought by the State of Maryland for the oyster police force, passed down the river this morning. She is said to be the handsomest vessel of her class in these waters.

A negro man, name unknown, fell in a fit on King street, near the St. Asaph street depot, and was conveyed to his home.

Mr. Stephen Ford, while at work in his wheelwright shop, on Payne street, last evening, had his hand very severely cut by the slipping of a chisel with which he was working. There will be a match game of base ball on Monday between the Rosedale Club, of Washington, and the Howard Club, of the Episcopal High School. It will be seen by reference to the advertisement elsewhere that the morning train on the Midland road leaves here five minutes earlier than formerly.

Rev. Arthur Johns will preach at Christ church to-night, at 8 o'clock.
